Largest city and economic capital of Morocco, Casablanca has an incredible architectural heritage! The tour will take you to visit Casablanca and its most emblematic places! a nice half day to discover the best sites of the majestic city begin with the Fabulous Hassan II Mosque. Let's go through the place Mohammed V and the old medina, the Habous district without forgetting the elegant church Notre Dame and the many other sites. Hassan II Mosque Hassan II Mosque is a mosque located in Casablanca. Erected partly on the sea, it is a religious and cultural complex, built on nine hectares. Far from the noisy and busy streets of the ancient Medinas, the Habous have a peaceful and calm atmosphere, an atmosphere full of spirituality. It comes of course from the beautiful mosque "Mohammadi", and the many tiny offices of the adouls around it. A little further, the street of booksellers with its beautiful arcades and its many windows, offers to see beautiful bound books, precious illuminations and examples of calligraphy sought. Behind begins the street Ibn Khaldoun. There is a real open-air theatre, with all the jewellery sellers, djellabas and other slippers. There are beautiful pieces of traditional Moroccan crafts. Shops with their colourful objects piled up on the ground look like real caves of Ali Baba. In this real labyrinth that is the medina, rich of its various souks with spices, olives, and its kissarias, visitors forget the fury of the city. Passage of this beautiful district: the pastry Bennis, specialist of Moroccan pastry since 1930, which is nestled in an unnamed house and whose Moroccan cakes, horns of gazelle, briouates and other chhiwates are famous throughout the country. The tour will end at midday and you are free to explore Casablanca on your own. Overnight at the Hotel.

Day 9 / Casablanca
