Day 5 / Venice (Walking Tour of Venice and 4 hours Guided Visit Torcello, Murano, and Burano)

Breakfast at the Hotel. Meet your guide near St Mark's Square for your Guided Walking Tour of Venice with Gondola Ride. This walking tour of Venice provides an excellent introduction to the city's highlights and history, plus the classic Venetian experience of riding in a gondola. Wander through the surrounding neighbourhood as your guide illuminates the history of Venice as a maritime superpower and incubator of Renaissance art. Admire iconic Venetian landmarks such as the Teatro la Fenice opera house, the Rialto Bridge and the mysterious spiral staircase of Scala del Bovolo.The specific tour itinerary may vary by day, as there is so much to see! After exploring the city's romantic streets by foot, climb aboard a traditional gondola boat for a romantic ride along the city's famous canals. Navigated by a friendly gondolier, cruise by spectacular historic structures along the Grand Canal and float down smaller watery ways in the Fenice neighbourhood. Then, step back on solid ground at the Dogana/Vallaresso Station in central Venice. Please note: The walking tour does not include entry to the monuments. In the afternoon at 1400 hrs proceed for a Guided Visit to Torcello, Murano, and Burano—three islands in the Venetian Lagoon. This is a great way to see more than just the central sights of Venice and enjoy a cruise on the water. Your tour from Venice to Murano, Torcello, and Burano begins as you board your motorboat and set off across the Venetian

Lagoon to your first stop, the island of Murano, which is actually several small isles dissected by a wide canal. Disembark the boat to walk around Murano with your guide. Visit a glass factory, where you watch a glassblower creating beautiful pieces of glassware, a Murano tradition that dates back to 1291. Hear a bit about the island's history from your guide, who tells you about Murano's prosperity in the 1400s and 1500s, when it was the centre of glassmaking in Europe. Then go admire other sights like churches decorated with mosaics and other ornamental details. Next, visit Torcello, an island established between the 5th and 6th centuries, to see its ornate palaces and churches. Highlights include the Cathedral of Santa Maria Assunta, founded in the 7th century, and the excavated remnants of the baptistery in the Church of Santa Fosca. Then head to your third stop, Burano, an island known for its lace production, which dates back to the 16th century and was once the best in Europe. While you visit local shops and a museum to admire high-end lace on display, admire the island's brightly-colored fishermen's houses. Later return to your hotel. Overnight at the Hotel.
